After all, the real question is that of decency in the life of the home and honcsty in public life. It makes little difference in the long run whether a Democrat or a Republican is President, but it makes difference to have all our public officials honest and clean. The candidate is the candidate of the party, but the President, if he is worth his salt, is the President of the whole people. You can't get good public life unless you have good private life."

President's Speech.

The President was wildly cheered as he rose to respond. He spoke as follows:

"We urgently need in this country methods for expediting punishment, methods for doing away with delay, methods which will secure to the public an even chance with the criminal. At the present the right of appeal is in certain cases abused as to make it a matter of the utmost difficulty ultimately to punish a man sufficiently rich or sufficiently influential to command really good lead talent.

"If the law is reasonably speedy and reasonably sure, it takes away one great excuse for lawlessness. If some horrible crime is committeed, and the people feel that, under the best circumstances there will be an indefinite delay in the nunishment of the criminal, and that the punishment will be uncertain, even when the time for administering it comes, then a premium is put upon that kind of law-breaking which more than any other, is a menacé to the law.

Turbulent Elements Everywhere Resist the Troops and Count Witte is at Standstill.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 26-4 A. M. Confronted by a situation more crucial than any since the beginning of the political and social unheavel of Russia, and which, at the time this dispatch is filed, shows no signs of amelioration, the Emperor's ministers, under the leadership of Count Witte, spent nearly all of yesterday in conferences in the hope of find-ing some way out of the crisis into which the revolutionists and the socialists have cast the country.

The general strike on the railroads is complete, except in a few horder provinces, and St. Petersburg, Moscow and other large cities are almost as closely heleaguered as if they were invested by besieging armies. At the same time the industrial strike has assumed large discountered and the technique description. mensions, and the turbulent elements in several localities are offering open resist-ance to the troops.

No Mail Received.

The ministers who had been in session during the day resumed their meeting after a short interval for dinner, and continued their deliberations until long continued their deliberations until long after midnight. The result of these deliberations is not known. The ministers were summoned to meet, not as the committee of ministers, of which Count Witte is president, but as council of ministers, of which Count Solsky is properly the chairman, and the selection of Count Witte to preside, which was done by direction of the Emperor, shows that a ministerial cabinet is actually, though not formally, an accomplished fact. It is senger Saturday next, together with an imperial rescript addressed personally to Count Witte, entrusting him with the simultaneously created position of premier mier.

The Finland railroad to Heisingfors and the steamers constitute St. Petersburg's only means of communication with the outer world this morning. The postal authorities are now refusing to accept ordinary mail, and commercial correspondence is at a standstill. The strike is complete in the great factory region on both banks of the Neva above the city and in several other industrial quarters. Forty thousand men are out but they are conducting themselves in a most orderly manner. The Store Clerks' Union to-night proclaimed a two-weeks' sympathetic strike for political reasons, but it is probable that it will be only partially obeyed. Prudent inhabitants are laying stocks of provisions, so as to prepare for emergencies. dons, so as to prepare for emergencies As a consequence, the prices of provisions have risen sharely.

Large meetings, mainly of workmen, were held last night in the university and the higher schools, at which the sentiment was unanimous for continuing the strike on the railroads to the bitter end. The proceedings at several of the meetings were of a strongly revolutionary character, the orators calling on their auditors to rise and siay all 'Chinovniks' and the police, and to meet the troops with armed force. These speeches were received with enthusiasm. The police were noverless to interfere, the presincts of the university being forbidden ground to them under and imperial ukase.

general strike was proclaimed on the two remaining lines running out of St. Petersburg.

The Social Democrats believe they have the government at their mercy since with the railroads stopped the authorities are the railroads stopped the authorities are powerless to transport troops. This is all the more serious, as bloody collisions already have been reported at various places, and a dangerous agrarian move-ment has agin broken out in the government of Samara.

The strength displayed by the Social Democrats has amazed ehe authorities who were taken quite as much by surprise at the evidence of their power as they were at the time of the "Gopon rebelling."

Not a Train Departs.

There was considerable excitement to-day at all the railroad stations, which are in possession of the troops. Not a train departed. The railroad battallons were called out and an attempt will be made to man a train to Moscow and the

With Clem Green Discusses the Issues at Keysville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

KEYSVILLE, VA., Oct. 25.—Congressman Hal Flood and Clem Green addressed the Democrats at this place to-day. Mr. Green, who is a Charlotte man, was well known to the people and was first to address the audience. He opened by complimenting the entire Democratic ticket, and rating up the issue said the Republicans all wanted office, and but for this fact only a few of this class could be found. He told how the Democrats since they came in power had settled the large debt brought upon this State by this party, and how the schools have been improved; that more than double the amount spent for the maintenance of education under the Republican, administration is now being spent by the Democrats. Not only schools, says he, but every public institution in the State has over six hundred thousand dollars in her treasury against nothing when they came in power. The free book question was also taken up, and Mr. Green mado it plain to his hearers that the free books, if secured, would be paid for by taxing the people, and the whites would be paying for books for negro children.

Congressman Flood was introduced at the close of Mr. Green's speech, and he immediately took up the record of Judge Lewis, telling how he had optised every measure introduced for the welfare of the Confederate soldlers of this State; how Mahone had ruled the Republican party as all knows, a large portion of this being attributed to his being an old Confederate soldlers while Judge Lewis was resting peacefully in his home during those dark then, too, took up the school book question, the various States under Republican
